This is my family!

Just like Nikhil and Jay have drawn their families in this book, draw and label everyone in your family.

Don't forget your pet or your teddy!

Me Do It?

Jay, in this story, finds it hard to do a few things. Do you feel like that sometimes? Nikhil in this story helps Jay.

List five things you find it hard to do.

And draw and show us who helped you to do it.

Losing Things

Jay, in this story, has misplaced the Green Dragon his Grandpa has given him. And he feels really bad about it.

Write and draw about a time when you lost something.

What did you lose? Were you upset?

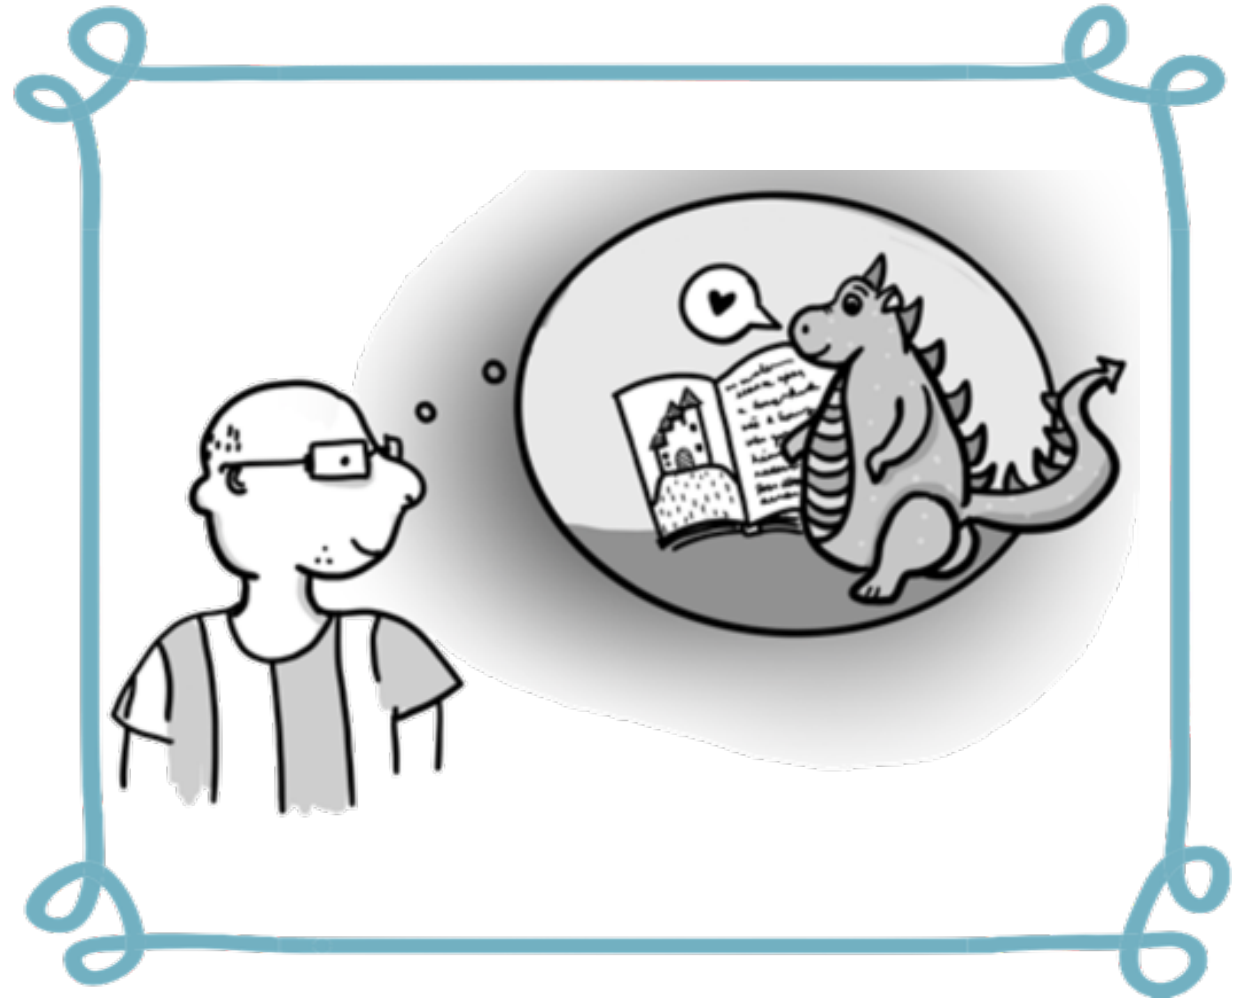

Did your parents get upset with you?

Make Up a Story

Grandpa makes up many stories about the Green Dragon for Nikhil and Jay.

Can you make up a story for the Green Dragon too?

Write and draw your story!

My Library

Nikhil and Jay go to their local library often.

Do you go to your school or local library?
Do you have a membership card?

Draw the outside of your library with its name!

Write about your library. Is there a story corner? Are there computers? Do you know the name of your librarian?

Name:

Age:

Class:

A large rectangular box at the bottom of the card is intended for a favourite book quote.

My Library Card

Design your own library card here!

Draw your photo inside the box. Fill in the details.

Then write your favourite book quote at the bottom.

Perhaps you can take it to your library and show your librarian!
